Our Mission is to provide a place for empowering self-expression and freedom. To create a strong sense of relatedness and community. To bring together people from various lifestyles and backgrounds in the universal desire for creativity, self-expression, freedom, and community. Passionate creativity and self-expression is a fundamental requirement for the achievement of joy and happiness. A community that generates these essential qualities will have a direct and powerful impact on the quality of life in their larger community. We started this journey over six years ago and continue to provide a strong art connection for our community. Call today and find out how you can be involved!

The Art Attack School of Art is a 501c3 nonprofit organization
